

Part 1 Financial Services Guide

Date of issue 1 July 2021

About this guide

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) explains the financial services provided by Northern Plateau Wealth Management Pty Ltd (NPWM) and your adviser (who is authorised through NPWM). It is designed to help you make a fully informed decision about whether you want to use our services.

Please take time to read this guide carefully. Sound financial advice is based on open communication. Understanding our services and our fees is the cornerstone of this communication. It is also important that you know who authorises your adviser, the nature of their associations and relationships and what to do if you have a complaint. If you have further questions, or if there is anything that isn't clear, please talk to your adviser or contact us.

This guide must be accompanied by an Adviser Profile which outlines your adviser's skills, qualifications and the services they are authorised to provide.

About us

Angelo Veschetti established NPWM in his endeavor to return to self-licensing. NPWM advisers offer professional financial advice strategies to enable you to live your ideal life without the pressures associated with financial concern.

Angelo is the sole owner and director of Veschetti Crompton Financial Advisers (VCFA), licensed by NPWM, which began in August 2014 when Angelo bought James Crompton's firm, which he'd been successfully operating in our community since 1989. We are the only local specialist financial planning firm in Atherton and choose not to dabble in anything else. We have a coaching style designed to increase your probability of financial success, whatever that looks like for you.

The comprehensive and personalised services we offer include strategic planning, ongoing coaching, superannuation review and establishment, portfolio design and management, life insurance, income protection insurance, self managed super fund advice and management, estate planning, business succession planning and aged care assistance.

Products and services we provide

Our advisers provide a range of financial services including investing, superannuation, retirement and insurance. Specific information about the services your adviser is authorised to provide and their qualifications are contained in the attached Adviser Profile.

Important documents you can expect to receive

When your adviser provides financial advice for the first time, you will generally be given a Statement of Advice (SoA). The SoA sets out your personal advice, the basis on which it is given, the cost of the advice, and information about any associations or relationships that could influence the advice.

If you require further advice later, providing your circumstances have not changed significantly since your previous SoA, your adviser may be able to provide the further advice verbally or via a shorter Record of Advice (RoA). If you are given verbal advice, your adviser will document the discussion and a copy of this record can be made available to you on request. If you are given further advice and your circumstances have changes significantly since your previous SoA, you will, by law, generally need to be given another SoA.

Lack of Independence

We receive commission on life insurance products as explained in this FSG under the heading 'How we are paid'. For these reasons, we do not refer to ourselves or our advice as independent, impartial or unbiased.

We do not otherwise accept remuneration from financial product providers, and we do not pay or receive any referral fees.

Why we exist

We exist to empower you to make confident financial decisions to live your ideal life without financial burden. We provide the methodology, structures, and support to give you the highest probability of achieving your visions and goals.

To help you make an informed decision about a financial product, you will generally be given a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which outlines the product features and costs in detail. In certain circumstances, there is no requirement to provide a PDS (including, for example, where you already have one).

If you enter into a Fixed Term Agreement of up to 12 months with your adviser you will be provided with a Client Service Agreement that sets out the services to be provided in the period and the associated fees.

If you enter into an Ongoing Service Agreement with your adviser for a period of greater than 12 months, a Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS) will be issued to you. The FDS will contain information about the services you are entitled to, any services you have received over the previous period and the fees you paid during the previous period. The FDS also includes information about the fees to be charged and services to be provided for the coming year and seeks your consent to renew our ongoing service.

If you ask your adviser to undertake a transaction without receiving advice from that adviser, you may be given a letter confirming your instructions and disclosing any costs payable by you in relation to that transaction.

Our Approved Products List

NPWM maintains an approved products and services list (APL) from various approved Australian and International providers.

NPWM periodically reviews these products to ensure they are competitive with similar products that address similar client needs and objectives. These products are researched using external research houses, as well as our in-house research team. Generally, the products we recommend are on the APL, however, if it is appropriate for your needs, we may, subject to NPWM approval, recommend other products.

You can obtain a copy of the APL on request.

Your adviser will first source from the APL before providing any recommendations. This means any product or service your adviser recommends has been thoroughly researched. They will only recommend a product or service after considering its appropriateness in relation to your individual objectives, financial situation, needs and best interest. Where your strategy requires products and services other than those on the APL to act in your best interest, the research team will be consulted, and we will seek to find an alternative solution.

Important relationships and other benefits

In addition to the related companies listed above (under the heading 'Our Approved Products List') you should also be aware of the following relationships and benefits that we may receive. Any payments noted below are not an additional cost to you and will only be made to the extent permitted by law.

Other payments

In addition, NPWM keeps a register of any other non-monetary benefits your adviser may receive in relation to education, training, technology support or software that is relevant to the provision of financial advice. If you would like a copy of either register, please ask your adviser and one will be made available to you.

How we and your advisers are paid

We receive remuneration from:

- Advice and service fees paid by you (fee for service)
- Commissions from insurance providers
- Other payments and benefits as outlined above under the heading 'Important relationships and other benefits'

As the licensee, NPWM collects all fees and commissions which are paid on to your adviser's practice, Veschetti Crompton Financial Advisers. Of the amount received by Veschetti Crompton Financial Advisers from NPWM, your adviser is paid a salary and may receive bonuses.

Advice and service fees paid by you

Your initial appointment is complimentary unless agreed otherwise. Before providing personal advice, your adviser will agree the fees and payment options with you. These fees will be based on your individual circumstances, the complexity of your situation and the time it takes to prepare your personal financial advice. Fees and commissions that are relevant to the advice being provided will also be disclosed in the written advice provided to you.

The types of fees you may be asked to pay can include:

Statement of Advice (SoA)

A once-off statement of advice fee is charged to cover the cost of our expert advice and includes researching, developing and preparing your advice document. This fee is typically direct debited from your agreed account after the advice is provided. This fee is a flat fee provided via a quote and may be up to $5,500.

Adviser Service Fee

The adviser service fee represents the cost of providing our annual professional services to you. A summary of the services which you receive for this fee is contained in the Client Service Agreement which is for a 12 month period. This fee is a flat fee provided via a quote and may be up to $55,000 pa.

This fee may be paid monthly, quarterly or annually and will be negotiated with you before advice is given and depends on the complexity of the advice and the agreed level of service being provided. This fee is typically paid in arrears and direct debited from your agreed account when we begin implementation. You only pay an adviser service fee if you agree to a Client Service Agreement and then, only until it expires.

Commissions from insurance providers

Insurance providers may pay us commissions if your adviser recommends insurance products to you. Commissions are based on a percentage of your insurance premium. On all commission arrangements where the commission in the first year is greater than that payable in later years, the maximum upfront (year 1) commission is 66% and the maximum ongoing (years 2+) commission is 22% (inclusive of GST).

Where upfront and ongoing commissions are the same, there is no legislated maximum however product providers generally pay up to 33%.

For insurance products purchased prior to 1 January 2018, we may continue to be paid commissions in the same manner as what would have previously been advised to you at the time of obtaining the product(s).
